

WORKSHOP ON INDIAN LEGISLATURES 2023

The two-day workshop will introduce law students to the working of legislatures, in particular law making. Through case studies and role play, the discussion will help students understand the policy questions that legislators need to consider before passing a Bill.

When: 5th - 6th April '23 | 14:30 - 18:00

Where: National Law University, Delhi

Eligibility: Students across all five years of the law program can attend.

Register by March 29, 2023 (Limited Seats)

SCHEDULE

- DAY 1
- Role of Legislatures - How Indian Parliament works (90 minutes)
 - Law Making - How to analyse a Bill (90 minutes)
- DAY 2
- Case Studies (90 minutes)
 - Case Studies (90 minutes)

REGISTER HERE

ABOUT PRS

PRS Legislative Research is a not-for-profit organisation based in New Delhi working towards strengthening democracy in the country by supporting the Parliament of India and state legislatures by providing quality non-partisan research on bills, budgets and policies.

