

CALL FOR PAPERS

INDIAN FAMILY SYSTEM: CONTEMPORARY ISSUES

CENTRE FOR COMPARATIVE STUDIES IN PERSONAL LAWS NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY DELHI

Family system has always been the backbone of Indian society since times immemorial. With the advent of economic liberalization and globalization Indians have witnessed several changes in the family set-up. Keeping in view this shift, the Centre for Comparative Studies in Personal Laws is planning to come up with a publication on contemporary issues emerging in the Indian Family System and reflecting on the core concerns and ethical issues prevalent in modern Indian society. Research based papers/articles (Full Papers) are invited from the academicians, practitioners and scholars from the field of law and related areas. Few related subjects are mentioned below which are mere indicative and broad. Specific research based articles may also be submitted for the publication.

Broad Themes:

- Hindu Joint/ Undivided Family
- Indian Family System: Issues and Probable Solutions
- Working of Family Courts
- Institution of Marriage: Changing Notions
- Child Marriage
- Same Sex Marriage
- Live-in Relationship: Pros and Cons
- Divorce and ADR
- Succession and Inheritance
- Property Rights with specific reference to Daughters, Married and Divorced Women
- Adoption & Parenthood
- Surrogacy and Related Concerns
- Guardianship & Custody
- Maintenance Rights of Children, Wife & Elderly People

The book shall be published with ISBN accepting quality research papers after peer reviewing process by experts in the field. The Editorial team recommends the use of APA Style Manual 6th Edition for citing references (Sample style referencing may be referred at <https://apastyle.apa.org/instructional-aids/reference-examples.pdf>) with not more than 6000 words. The paper in accordance with guidelines may be submitted through email at csplnlud@gmail.com on or before 28th February 2023.
