

National Conference on Protection of Rights of Elderly People in India: Socio-Legal Issues, Challenges and Our Priorities

Organised by

CENTRE FOR COMPARATIVE STUDIES IN PERSONAL LAWS

National Law University, Delhi

Click here for further details

LAST DATE OF ABSTRACT
SUBMISSION (EXTENDED)

October 20, 2023

Intimation for Acceptance of Abstract:
October 22,
2023

Last date for payment
of Registration
Fee:
October
31, 2023

ABOUT NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, DELHI

National Law University, Delhi is one of the premier law universities in India, accredited with ‘A’ Grade by NAAC for the last three consecutive years. Since its inception, it has aimed to impart comprehensive and interdisciplinary legal education. The chief mandate of the University is to promote legal and ethical values, foster the rule of law and the objectives enshrined in the Constitution of India. It works towards dissemination of best legal knowledge with effective industry and community linkages. Students are inculcated the ability to analyze the present contemporary issues of public concern and their legal implications for the benefit of society. All this ensures holistic development of young students due to which, they are able to face life’s varied challenges in their personal or professional lives. High academic standards, innovative pedagogy and global curriculum provides an edge to the University to grow and foster speedily.

ABOUT THE CENTRE

Research in the field of personal laws is required to be done in India due to its multicultural and religiously diverse society. The Centre aims to undertake research and impart legal education to all concerned regarding matters relating to personal, matrimonial, succession and other family laws and to provide counseling, assistance, and litigation support, in case of any dispute arises in the related issues. Keeping in mind the changes in social set-up, behavioral patterns of younger and older generations and ever-widening gap between them, the Centre takes up various initiatives to improve inter-se relations to bring about peace and tranquility in the society. Research on different socially relevant topics, analysis of current laws, policies, programmes and judicial pronouncements are carried out. To collaborate and liaise with public and private institutions and NGOs, to invite scholars, academicians, lawyers and judges for lectures and dialogues on contemporary issues relating to children, women, elderly, family etc. and to organize seminars, conferences and debates on various topics related to society, concerning its different stakeholders, primarily on personal laws are some of the main objectives of the Centre.