

CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME ON COMPETITION LAW

About the National Law University Delhi

The National Law University Delhi (NLUD) is a leading publicly funded law University in India and was established by the Government of the National Capital Territory of Delhi. The Chief Justice of India is a Visitor to the University and the Chief Justice of the Delhi High Court is the Chancellor of the University.

The University has been consistently ranked second in the National Institutional Ranking Framework since 2018. In the last decade, NLUD has carved a niche in the area of legal education and research through its bouquet of academic programmes, and dynamic pedagogy. It actively engages in socially relevant interdisciplinary research with the broader goal of achieving political, social and economic justice.

About the Centre for Business and Financial Laws

The Centre for Business and Financial Laws at NLUD (CBFL) has been established to develop intellectual leadership and capabilities in the areas of commercial laws, markets regulations and financial services. It aims to generate scholarship and work as a think tank for robustness and soundness of the business and financial sector. The Centre seeks to engage public and private stakeholders for working together on exchange of ideas, policy recommendations and allied regulatory issues.

About the Course

The Centre for Business and Financial Laws, in collaboration with the Competition Commission of India, is organising a two-day "Capacity Building Programme on Competition Law" on November 5 – 6, 2022 (Saturday - Sunday) in the university campus at Dwarka, New Delhi. The programme aims to build capacity among professionals and other stakeholders to comply with the competition law in letter and spirit, sensitise them with contemporary thoughts and developments, and prepare them to deal with emerging competition concerns.
