

National Law University, Delhi

Sector-14, Dwarka, New Delhi – 110 078.

Round Table

On

“Best Practices in NGO Governance: Issues and Challenges”

Organised by Charity Commission and National Law University, Delhi

On 10th February, 2010,

Venue: National Law University, Delhi.

PRELIMINARY DRAFT AGENDA

Time	Events
10:00-11:00 a.m.	Inauguration and Keynote: Setting the Context and key note by Phil Cooper, UK Charity Commission.
11:00-11:30 a.m.	Coffee Break
11:30-1:00 p.m.	First Session: Introduction to different types of NGOs Regulation with submissions from Speakers and Participants.
1:00-2:00 p.m.	Lunch
2:00-3:30 p.m.	Second Session: What works well in the current system and what could benefit from improvement including some comments from officials about the current thoughts / vision of the Government with submissions and case studies from Speakers and Participants.
3:30-3:45 p.m.	Tea Break
3:45-5:00 p.m.	Third Session: Reporting Back and Comments on the National Situation in the Context of International Best Practice perhaps in context of activity around the upcoming Commonwealth Games 2010 with submissions from Speakers and Participants
5:00-5:30 p.m.	Fourth Session and Valedictory: Concluding Recommendations Where we go from here: Actions and Responsibilities and Declaration
NB In each Session there will be 2 speakers setting key points for the theme (for 15 minutes) each under discussion (1 hour) and the Moderators / Chairperson to conduct the session within the available time lines. Participants will be drawn from the range set out in the Concept Note including Ministries (Finance/Planning/Panchayati/Home), International and National Donors, Representative NGOs, Regulators, Enforcement Agencies, Lawyers and NGO sector experts.	